

Yü Linlin Huang

hylinlin@mit.edu

500 Memorial Drive
Cambridge, MA 02139

T 617 800 4498

OBJECTIVE

To obtain a summer internship position in the area of software programming.

EDUCATION

Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge, MA Candidate for Bachelor of Science degree in Electrical Engineering and Computer Science and Brain and Cognitive Sciences. June 2013. Relevant courses include: introduction to computer science and programming, introductory biology, calculus.

Pettisville High School, Pettisville, OH May, 2009. Ohio Honors Diploma, National Honors Society member, President's Volunteer Award (2009), 2nd Place Air Force Award in Environment and Transportation at International Science and Engineering Fair (2008), 2nd Place Award in Energy Category at International Science World Olympiad (2008), regional American Voice Award (2008-09).

EXPERIENCE

Private Chinese Teacher September 2007- June 2009

Exposed young students to Chinese language by teaching Pinyin and simple, useful characters; introduced students to Chinese history and culture by utilizing multimedia presentations and personal experience.

Congressional Page, United States House of Representatives July 2008 - August 2008

Delivered packages/messages between congressional members, to Library of Congress, and the U.S. Supreme Court; called Representatives to the House floor for congressional hearings and debates; memorized names and faces of Representatives for fast message deliveries.

ACTIVITIES/INTERESTS

Mock Trial team-founder/defense lawyer; school newspaper-editor in chief/staff writer; volunteer at local hospital; cross country member; piano; singing.

SKILLS

Fluent in English and Chinese; conversational in Spanish; one year of high school informational technology; completed four years of science research projects in high school.