

SHELLY JIN

229 Vassar St. Cambridge, MA 02139
srjin@mit.edu (561) 601-8018

EDUCATION

Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT)

Candidate for Bachelor of Science in Economics and Mathematics, GPA: 4.84

June 2013
Cambridge, MA

Relevant Coursework: Intermediate Microeconomics, Intermediate Macroeconomics, Econometrics, Probability and Statistics, International Trade, Linear Algebra, Finance Theory, Corporate Finance Accounting, Statistics for Applications, Industrial Organization and Competitive Strategy, Research and Communication in Economics

Atlantic Community High School

Valedictorian in class of 650, SAT: M:800 CR:780 W:790
International Baccalaureate (IB) Diploma

May 2009
Delray Beach, FL

WORK EXPERIENCE

Global Platinum Securities

February 2011-Present

Analyst

- Analyzed company and industry financial metrics and researched and applied equity investment strategies
- Presented companies at weekly sector meetings in Consumer and Industrial sectors
- Pitched a buy for Yum! Brands at the annual Fall Conference

MIT Office of Undergraduate Advising and Academic Programming

June 2011-September 2011

Orientation Coordinator

- Chaired Women's Orientation Committee and spearheaded four large events for MIT women
- Supervised 60 hours of Freshman Orientation Check-In and prepared individual folders for the incoming class
- Coordinated Core Blitz, an academic requirement presentation by MIT professors and Undergraduate Dean
- Designed and executed 17 student-led tours throughout MIT, Cambridge, and Boston over three days
- Organized a day of Freshman Explorations with more than 20 MIT lab tours and department presentations
- Facilitated the introduction of more than 40 transfer students into MIT and Freshman Orientation

MIT Economics Department

Undergraduate Researcher

May 2010-Present

- Researched health care issues and analyzed data sets with Professor Gruber
- Examined U.S. agriculture's economic history with Professor Donaldson

Tutorial Leader and Tutor

August 2010-Present

Taught weekly sections of 14.01, Principles of Microeconomics

United States Martial Arts Academy

December 2007-May 2009

Taekwondo Instructor

- Led elementary and middle school aged classes and taught forms, stretches, kicks and sparring techniques

ACTIVITIES

Associate Advising

- Headed associate advising in Simmons Hall and served as a representative of the AA Steering Committee
- Advised all the sophomore economics majors and guided more than 40 freshman through their first year

MIT Student Ambassadors Vice President

August 2010-Present

- Restructured the program to provide student ambassadors with new opportunities
- Represented the MIT student community and interacted with alumni, visitors, and prospective students

MIT Undergraduate Economics Association Treasurer

August 2010-Present

- Organized events including panels discussions and company presentations and manage dire finance concerns

MIT Sport Taekwondo Social Chair, Publicity Chair

August 2009-May 2011

- Competed in intercollegiate tournaments, weekly training, and organized social events and banquets

SKILLS AND INTERESTS

Computer: Microsoft Office, STATA, HTML

Languages: Fluent in spoken Chinese (Mandarin), Proficient in Spanish

Other Activities: Orientation Leader, Tour Guide, Membership Development Chair of Society of Women Engineers