Engineering Activity Kits Program

Sign up here to receive two activity kits throughout the fall semester focused on various mini science projects! This program is oriented towards 3-5th or 6-8th graders (you'll get a different kit based on your age group) and we'll send over materials and instructions to make small projects such as a mini electric car or magnetic slime!